

REMARKS

Appellant submits this Amendment under MPEP §1207 to reduce issues for appeal, namely to separate the claims rejected under §103(a) from the claims rejected under §102(e). Appellant believes that the present application is now in condition for allowance and respectfully request allowance of each of the pending claims 1-26. If the Examiner upon considering this amendment should find that a telephone interview would be helpful in expediting allowance of the present application, the Examiner is respectfully urged to call the Applicant's attorney at the number listed below.

Respectfully submitted,
